Go placidly amid the noise and waste and remember what comfort there may be in owning a diploma thereof.

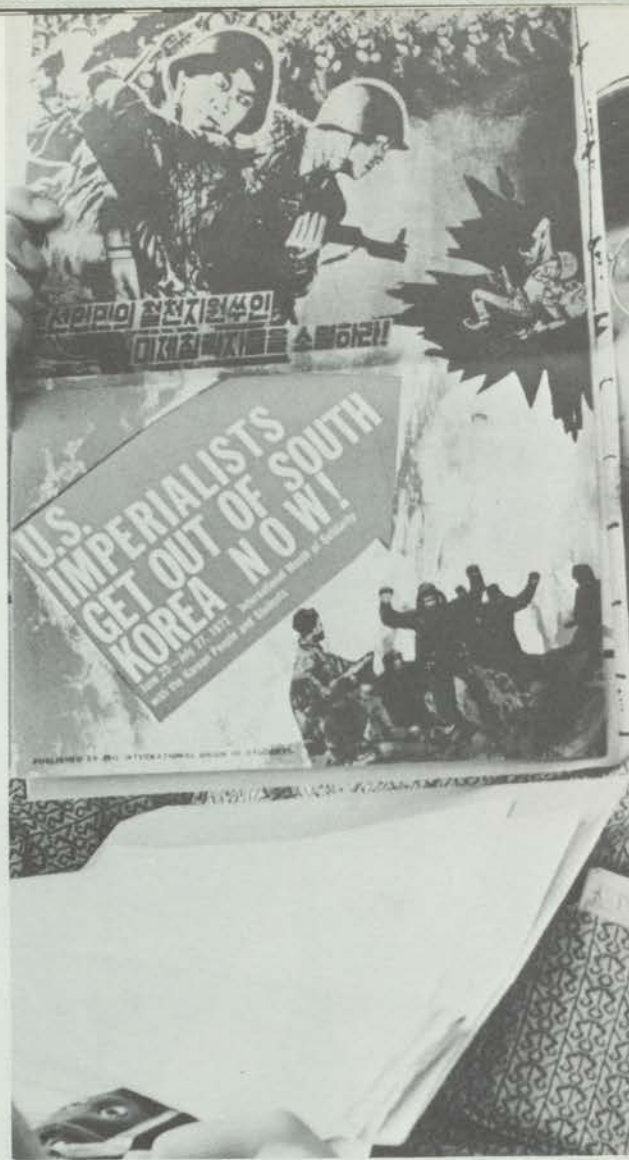

Avoid quiet and passive persons unless you are in need of sleep.

*Rotate
your
tires.*

*Speak glowingly of those
greater than yourself,
And heed well their
advice,
Even though there may be turkeys.
Be careful what you kiss,
and when.
Consider that two wrongs never make a right*

But three — do

*Whenever possible, put people on hold.
Be comfortable that in the face of all heredity and disillusionment,
And despite the changing
fortunes of time,
There is always a big future
in computer maintenance.*

*Remember
the
Beer.
Keep
your
glass
filled*

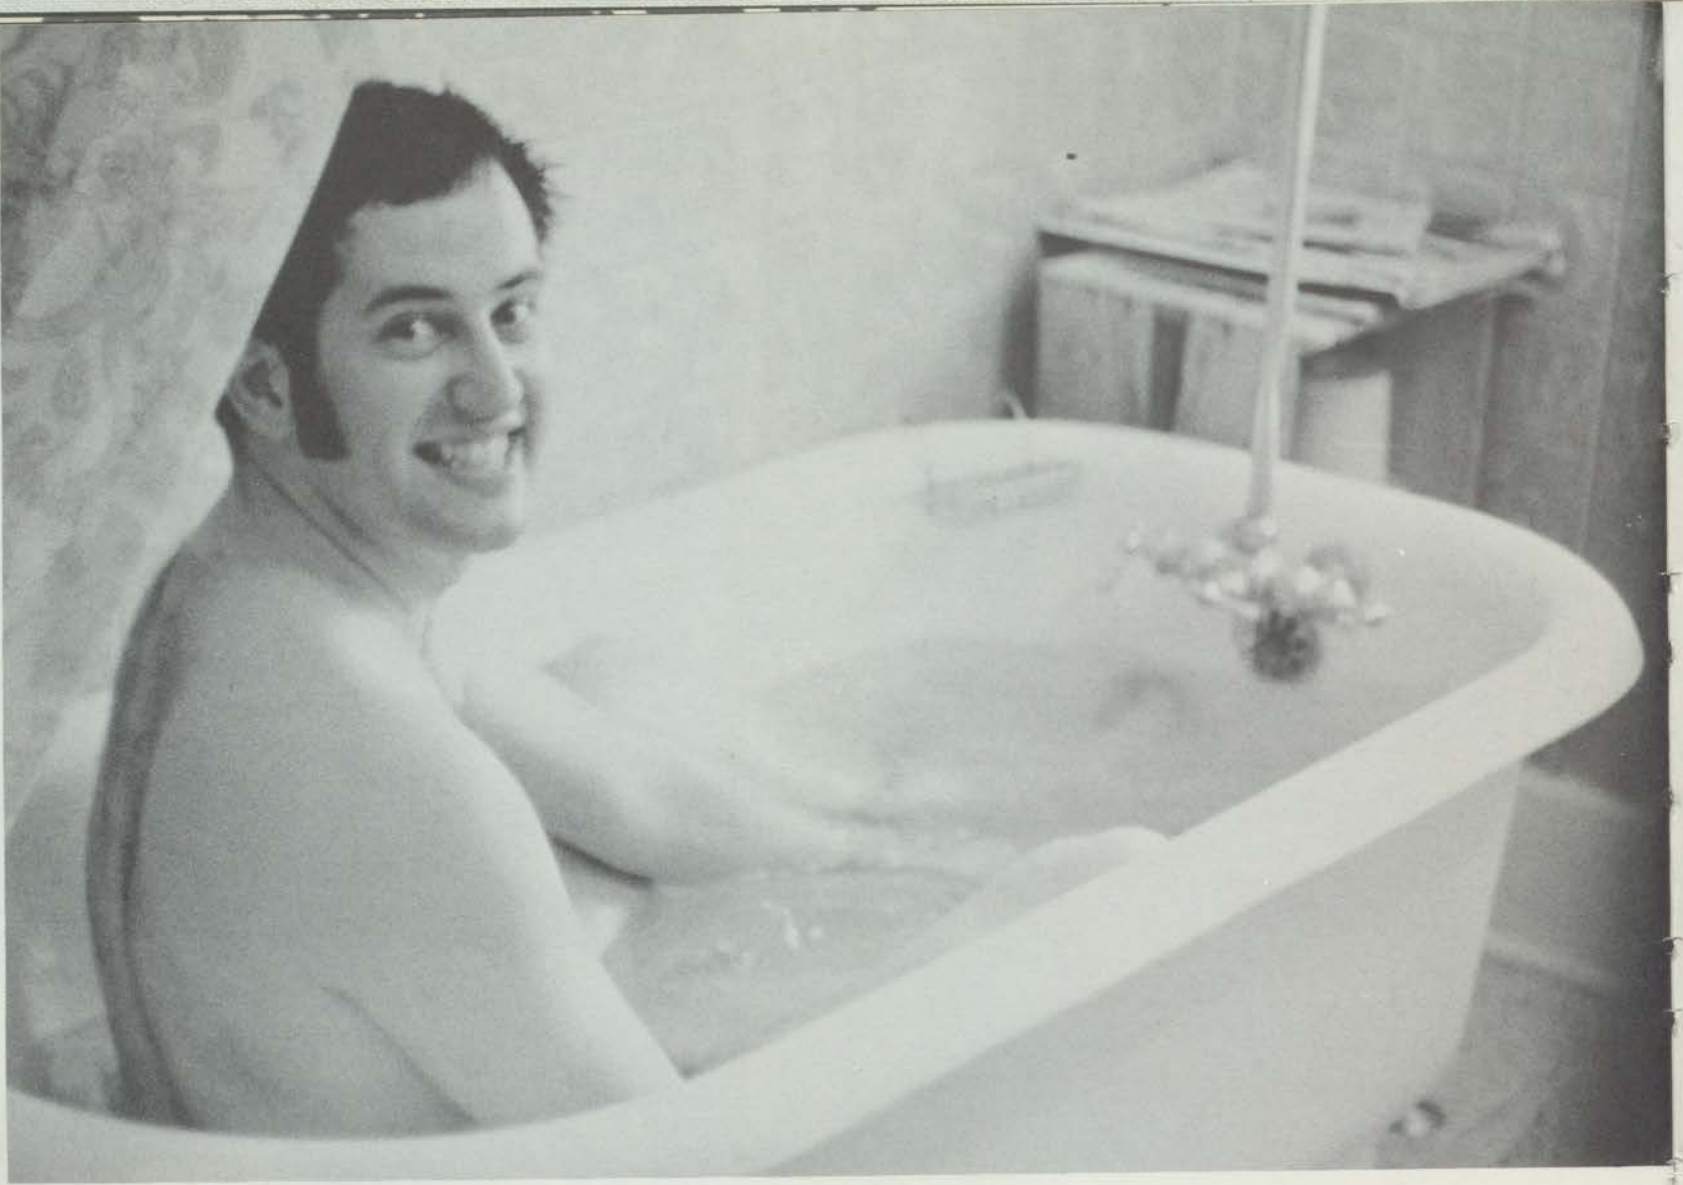

Know yourself. If you need help, call Security.

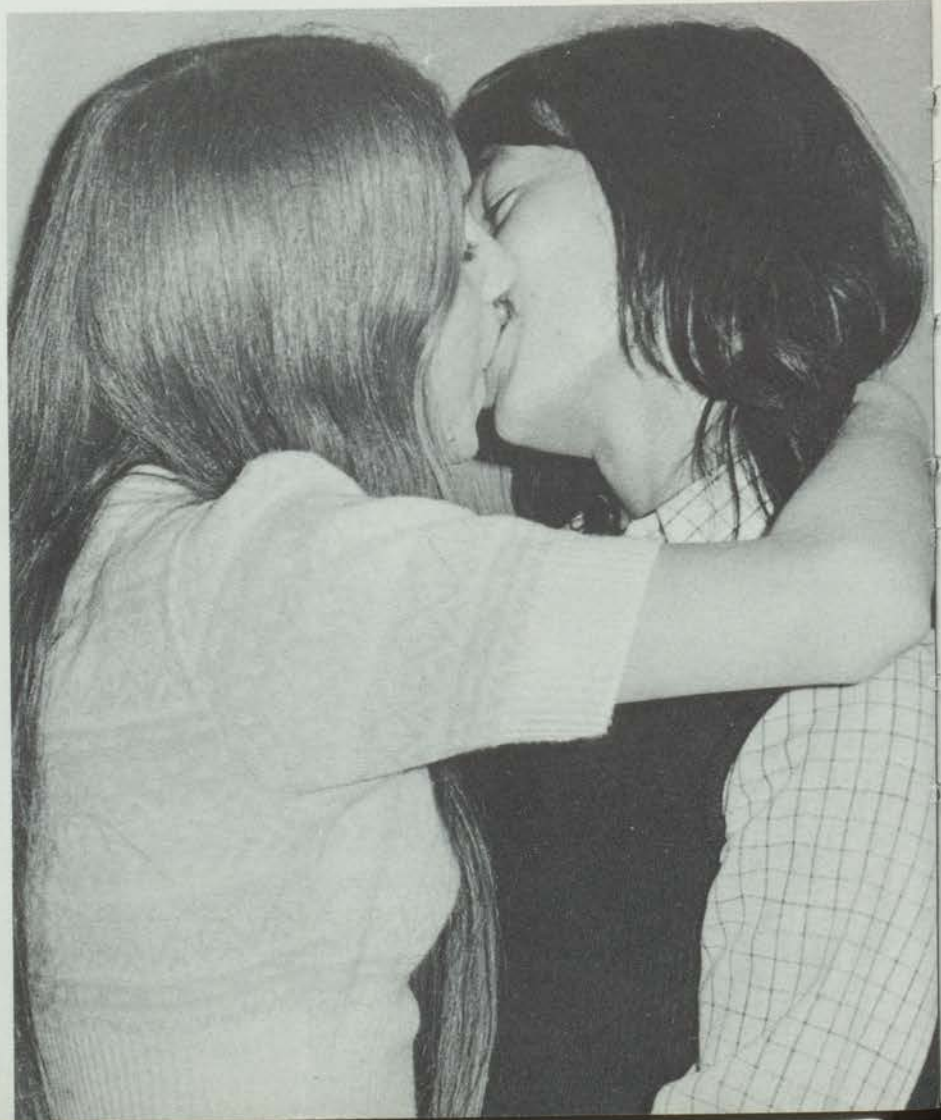

*Exercise caution
in your daily
affairs,
Especially for those persons
closest to you —
Those lemons
on your left,
for instance.*

*Be assured that a walk through the oceans of most souls would scarcely get your feet wet.
Fall not in love, therefore
It will only stick to your face.*

Gracefully surrender the things of youth or
for a good time call 1-519-253-4232
Ext. 326 and ask for Toots

*Take heart amid your deepening gloom, that your dog is finally
getting enough cheese.
And reflect that
whatever misfortune
may be your lot,
It could be worse.
Therefore make peace
with your God,
whatever you conceive
him to be;
Hairy Thunderer
or Cosmic Muffin.*

With all its hopes, dreams,
 promises, and urban
 renewal,
 The world continues to destroy itself
 Give up.
 You are a fluke of the University. You have no right to be here;
 Whether you can hear
 it or not,
 The University is laughing behind your back.

But a much sadder tale
must be told.

The "evils" of that "beverage" — that "evil" drink called alcohol, came to Windsor U.

A description of the symptoms should suitably inform the student body of its ill affects.

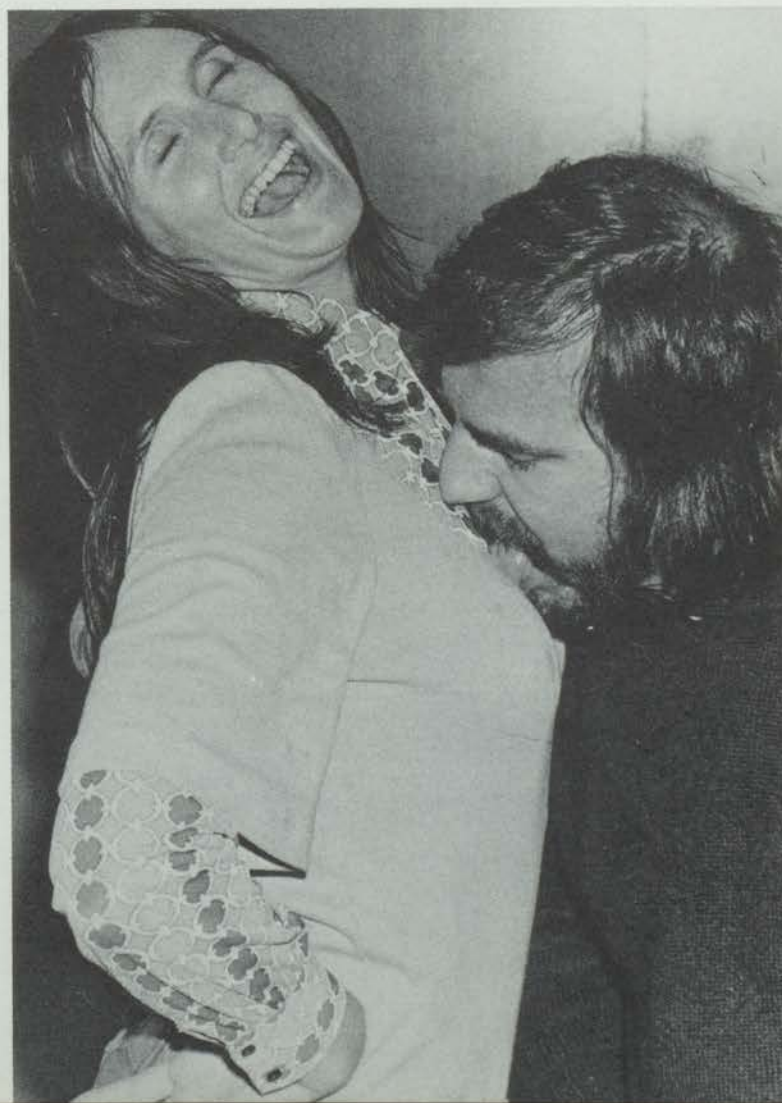

The end results are blah's, extreme fatigue.

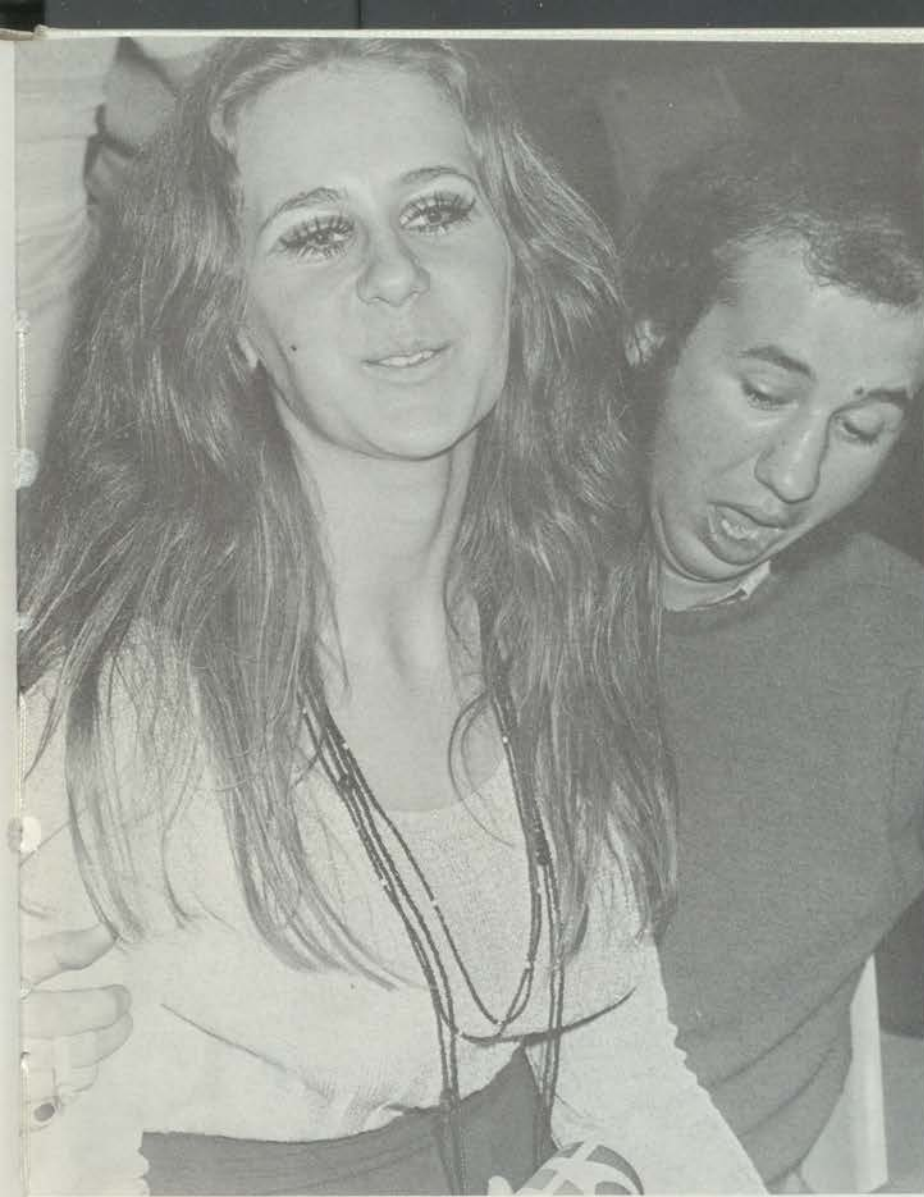

Passion and physical aggression, very quickly result.

The connection between it and mind-stupefying drugs is still not clear. However, violence to sustain the habit has been observed.

Behavior not akin to normalcy was the rule rather than the exception.

The conclusion is obvious. The more addicted members were carried out. The rest stayed to enjoy the fun.

(All the foregoing pictures were taken to illustrate the disease.)
Any resemblance to persons known, seen or imagined is pure blarney.

Homecoming '74

Brian Jackson handed out S.A.C.'s money to help fund their float in Saturday morning's parade . . .

... while other groups such as the Lance and the Commerce Club used other means of "support".

Other entries in the morning's festivities included the engineers' Ei Eio band and the girls (with a little help from their friends) from Electa.

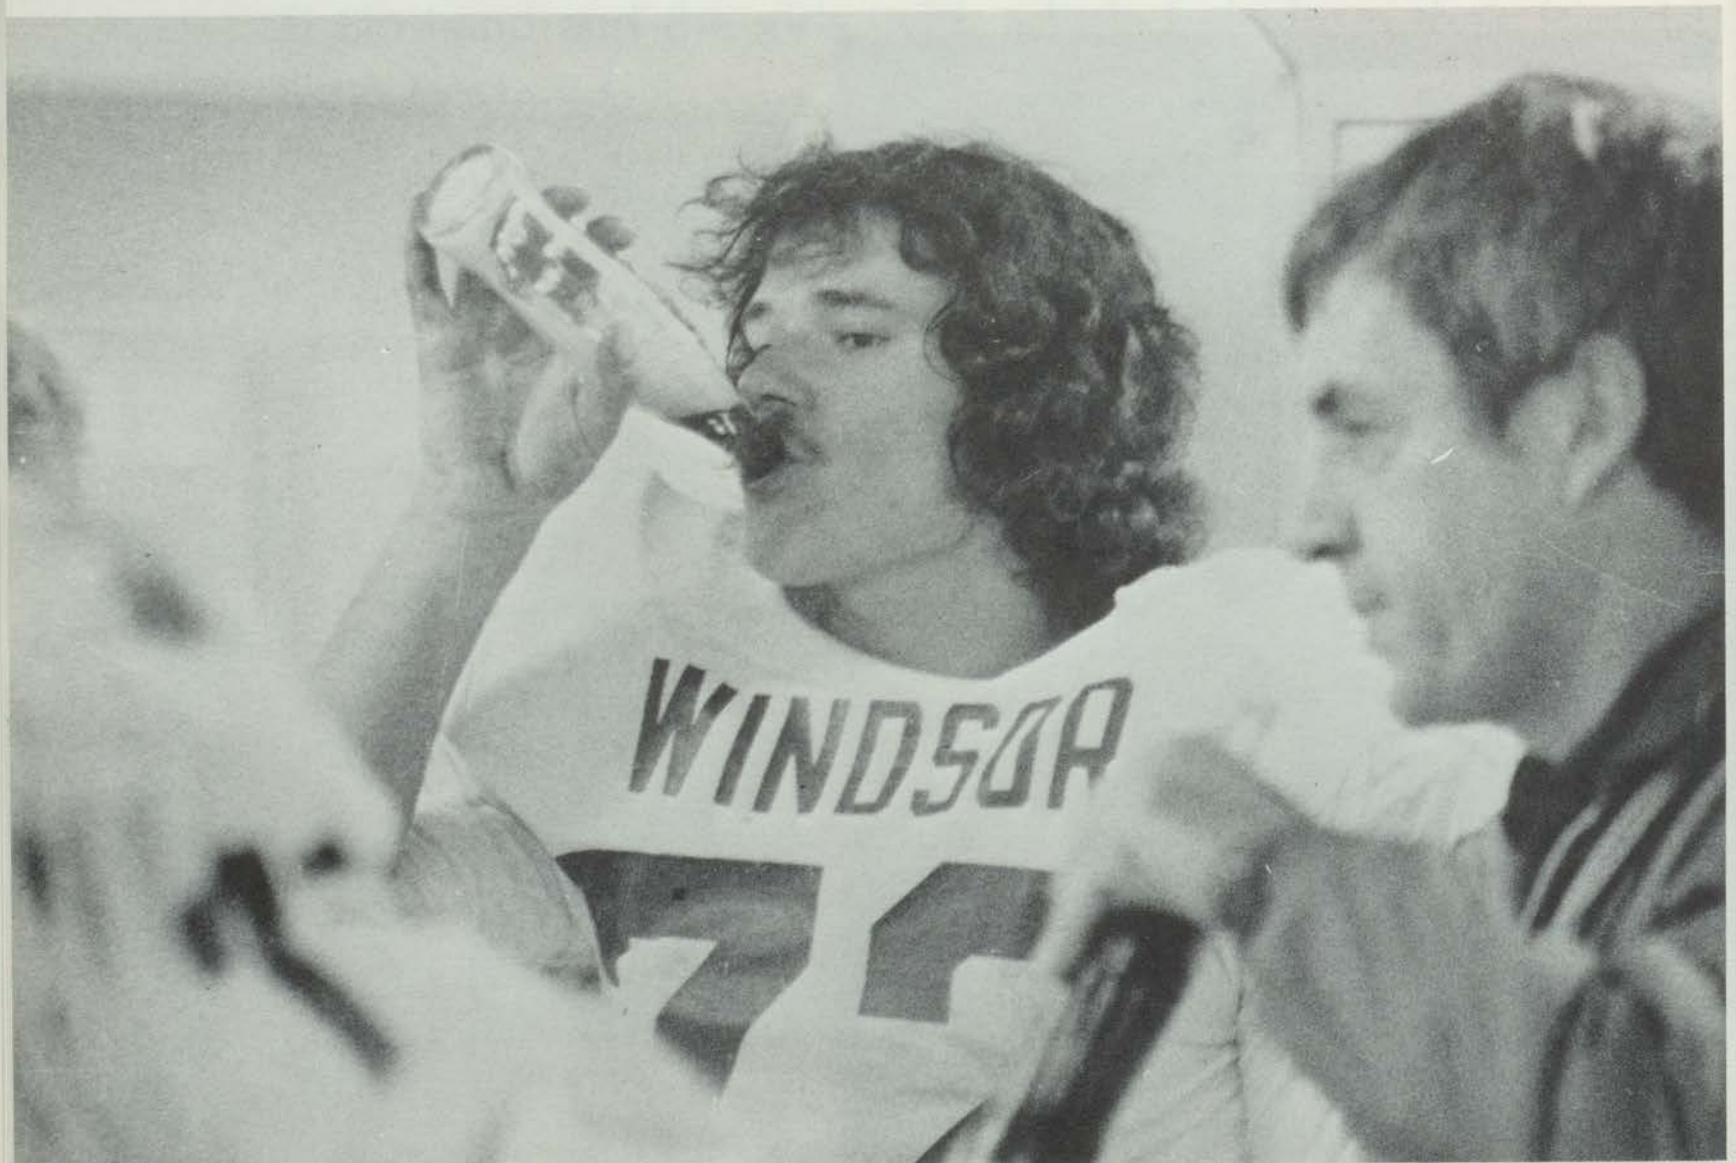

After the parade, people crowded in to see the Annual Homecoming football game. Later students were treated to a concert by Joe in St. Denis Hall.
